

I am interested in seeing HDTV broadcasting become the standard as soon as possible. I think the implementation laws should not be relaxed. Stations and manufacturers have not done enough to promote HDTV or to meet deadlines already established. There should also be as much public representation on panels to administer hdtv as the manufacturing and broadcasting industry have.